COR16078 Sacred Music

Series One of the BBC's groundbreaking classical music programme follows renowned actor and former chorister Simon Russell Beale as he explores the flowering of Western sacred music. This four-part documentary series contains a rich mix of personal, political and musical stories.

COR16079 An Easter Celebration

Simon Russell Beale presents a special concert for Easter from LSO St Luke's in London, performed by Harry Christophers and The Sixteen. The music takes us on a journey of over six hundred years. Highlights include Allegri's Miserere.

COR16083 A Handel Celebration

Handel's Coronation Anthems have delighted audiences ever since their first performance in 1727. They appear in all their glory in this celebratory Prom concert from the Royal Albert Hall, interspersed with a selection of Handel favourites.

COR16094 A Christmas History

Harry Christophers and The Sixteen join Simon Russell Beale as he takes a journey through Italy, Britain, Germany and Austria exploring how the sound of Christmas has evolved. He discovers a fragment of papyrus preserving the earliest known piece of Christian music and the stories behind Hark the Herald Angels Sing, Silent Night and In the Bleak Midwinter. October 2011 Release.

"A beautifully filmed series that should inspire many to investigate further."
